3RD UNDERGRADUATE POSTER CONFERENCE

KARACHI – JUNE 6th, 2024

Theme: From Peter to Putin :An Astonishing Journey from Pro-Westernization to Anti-Westernization (2.0)

THE PURPOSE AND FOUNDATION OF THE CONFERENCE

On behalf of Department of International Relations (FUUAST, Karachi), we cordially invite the undergraduate students for Study of Russia's Poster Conference. The foremost purpose of this poster conference is to delve into in-depth studies of Russian history. The aim of this conference is to explore the historical, cultural, political, economic, socio-economic and psychological factors that have shaped Russia's attitude towards the West, from the era of Peter the Great to Putin (present day). This will encourage students to enhance their learning of Russian studies comprehensively and provide them an opportunity to evaluate their in-depth knowledge of Russian studies. We aim to explore the different regimes of Russia with the element of Westernization and anti-Westernization. This conference aims to provide a critical platform for further discussions and debates and to analyze future events. This conference provides wonderful opportunity for undergraduate students to present their research, gain feedback from faculty and peers, and engage in interdisciplinary discussions on the complex relationship between Russia, Central Asia, and the West.

This conference welcomes poster presentation on the main theme, " From Peter to Putin: An Astonishing Journey from Pro-Westernization to Anti-Westernization 2.0." Participants are requested to make a poster with relevant sub-theme pertaining to this main theme. Apart from mentioning multiple aspects, you are requested to pick only one or two. For instance;
