2ND UNDERGRADUATE POSTER CONFERENCE

KARACHI: JUNE 7TH, 2023

Theme: From Peter to Putin: An Astonishing Journey from Pro-Westernization to Anti-Westernization

THE PURPOSE AND FOUNDATION OF THE CONFERENCE

On behalf on Department of International Relations (FUUAST, Karachi), we cordially invite the undergraduate students for Study of Russia's Poster Conference. The foremost purpose of this poster conference is to delve into in-depth studies of Russian history. This conference aim is to explore the historical, cultural, political, economic, socio-economic and psychological factors that have shaped the attitude of Russia towards the west, from the era of Peter the Great to Putin (present day). This would encourage the students to enhance their learning of Russian studies, comprehensively. It would provide an opportunity for the students to evaluate their in-depth knowledge of Russian studies. To explore the different regimes of Russia with the element of Westernization and anti-Westernization. Its aim is to provide a critical platform for further discussions and debates and to analyze future events. This conference provides wonderful opportunity for undergraduate students to present their research, gaining the feedbacks from faculty and peer and engage in interdisciplinary discussions on the complex relationship between Russia, Central Asia and the west.

This conference welcomes the poster presentation on the main theme, " From Peter to Putin: An Astonishing Journey from Pro-Westernization to Anti-Westernization." Participants are requested to make a poster with a relevant subtheme with respect to this main theme. Apart from mentioning multiple aspects, you are requested to pick only one or two. For instance;

- The role of media in shaping perceptions of the West.
- The impact of economic sanctions on Russia's relationship with the West.
- The evolution of Russia's foreign policy, and the cultural and historical factors that have influenced attitudes towards the West.
- The political and social implications of the shift from pro-westernization to anti-westernization in the region.
